The eternal duality of vision and tradition...

Six passionate souls from Würzburg, Germany have made it their mission to unite this ancient and existential contrast in a musical context. Taking courageous steps towards new shores versus conserving structures that have stood the test of time – keeping this fine balance and even forging it into an alliance more potent than the sum of its pieces, that is the musical essence of DVALIN.

Weaving together traditionally instrumented Folk-Metal with forceful Melodic-Death-Metal riffing, while incorporating progressive elements in order to enter fertile new grounds is the credo of the Franconian sextet.

Brace yourselves – DVALIN are taking no prisoners!

DVALIN are not just „another Folk/Pagan Metal act“, they are clearly going their own way! Refreshing and original! They are combining melodic, playful and experimental Death Metal with classic medieval sounds and bagpipe-playing that resembles the likes of In Extremo.
